TELEGRAMS

(By Havas Agency)

London, 12th—Telegrams from Kioto (Japan) say that the Czarevitch has been seriously stabbed by a Japanese. The motive for the crime is unknown.

London, 13th—The news about the Czarevitch has been officially confirmed; but the wound is not serious. The aggressor, who is a fanatic, was arrested on the spot.

The Provincial Legislature of Buenos Ayres was the scene of an interesting debate on Tuesday with reference to the sale of the Western Railway. The speech of the Provincial Minister of Finance was as follows:—

"It is impossible for me to explain the causes that prevented my predecessor from giving a full account of the whole transaction, which was concluded on July 1st 1890, when the Government received bills on London at 90 and 180 days for the sum stipulated.

"On my assuming the Finance portfolio in January 1891 I made enquiries about this business and found to my surprise that the Contaduria had no information. I had therefore to look up and collect all documents referring to it, a task which I only completed yesterday.

"It appears that in conformity with the law passed on the matter the Government called for tenders. Two were sent in, for 34,100,000 and 35,000,000 gold dollars respectively, and the late Governor Paz rejected both as insufficient. Subsequently another was sent in for $41,000,000 gold, or £8 134,920 sterling, from which were to be deducted:—

Sum due in London	5,031,200
" " to S. B. Hale	277,958
Sundries	21,331
Total	5,330,489

"The sum, therefore, coming to Government was £2,804,431 sterling. The above item of sundries includes the value of the Casey Market at Barracas, namely £21,219 sterling. Accordingly the company buying the railway paid the balance of 13,832,135 gold dollars, being the equivalent in bills, at the rate of 49¼ and 49 pence at 90 and 180 days, on London.

"Out of the proceeds the Government paid the Provincial Bank a debt of 1,406,261 gold dollars, advances for payment of interest on public debt in England; also a sum of 8,713,394 gold dollars in discharge of a debt of 23,779,000 currency, at the rate of 100 gold dollars for 260 currency. The Government then deposited the balance, which was 3,712,509 gold dollars, to its credit in the Provincial Bank.

"So far everything was correct and according to law. But the Bank, instead of keeping this balance in a special account as ordered by law, merely placed it in account current to the Government, thinking there was nothing wrong in so doing, since the Bank acted as the Treasury of the Government of the Province. It was an error of judgment, but caused no loss to the Goverament.

"We see accordingly that among the items charged to the Government are a draft of 42,150 gold dollars for iron for the School of Arts, and further on an item for $300,000 in connection with the troubles of last July, besides two drafts of $126,000 and $526,000 for paying coupons on the foreign debt in London. Under the circumstances we cannot blame the late Minister for acting as he did. I would have done the same. It was imperative to pay the coupons, and the Minister naturally availed himself of the money in bank.

"Thus it happened that on December 31st 1890 the balance in bank to the credit of the Government was reduced to $2,080,795 gold, of which it was considered prudent to convert $857,100 into currency at 328 for 100, which produced $2,794,125 currency.

"Finally we find that on April 30th 1891 the Government had 1,261,810 gold dollars to its credit in the Bank, instead of 400,000$ gold as the Governor incorrectly stated in his Message at the opening of the Chambers. The error seems to have arisen from the proposal last March to wipe out all debts in gold at 50 per cent, a proposal which the Bank made with the best intentions, in order to permit those persons who owed gold to liquidate their obligations, which some persons accordingly did.

"I have said that the Government had on June 30th 1890 a balance of 1,262,000 gold dollars to its credit. But I must add that there was also an account-current in paper-money, which shewed on that debt a balance against the Government of $25,510,900, of which the Bank wiped out $23,759,050 by converting (out of the sum of 13 million gold dollars received) a sum of $8,713,395 gold at 273 per cent, which produced the said amount of $23,759,050 currency.

Balance in our favor	1,262,000 gold
" against Govt.	1,272,479 currency

"On Dec. 31st 1890 the balance against Government had risen to 6,798,000$ currency, and the balance in gold to our credit to 2,080,700$ gold.

"At present we owe the Bank 5,330,000 $ currency, and have to our credit 1,268,810$ in gold. If we were to sell the latter it would enable us to reduce our debt to the Bank to 1,580,965$ currency. Thus you have a full statement of the disposal of money arising from sale of the Western Railway."

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

THE STATE BANKS.

The effects of the crisis were necessarily felt by the State banks for some time past, especially as they supplied the largest amounts on personal credit to people involved in speculation of all kinds.

I shall limit my remarks to the National Bank and Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres, the two most important, and I shall show how their present situation was foreshadowed a year ago, and how all efforts to avert the catastrophe have proved fruitless.

In the beginning of last year, when the reserves were rapidly vanishing, and they could no longer meet their obligations, both banks appealed to the National Government for help in the emergency. The Government decided to help them with the so-called clandestine issue of paper money, which caused so much excitement in the public, and excited so much opposition against the Government.

The National Bank then received 12 millions and was authorised to leave in circulation 14 millions of its old issue. The Provincial Bank received $8,700,000. With this pecuniary assistance both banks managed to continue operations.

Later on the Government of the Province of Buenos Ayres sold the Western Railway, and of the proceeds the Provincial Bank received 13 million gold dollars, which enabled the Bank to make a show of prosperity.

On the 8th of August last year the National Government found the National Bank in the following condition: it had exhausted all the extraordinary funds given by the Government; it had contracted obligations, not including deposits, to the amount of $7,400,000 m/n gold, of which $1,480,000 had fallen due; its reserves consisted of only $450,000 in gold and silver, and $40,000 in bank notes.

Thanks to the assistance of foreign credits; to the help of the Provincial Bank, which still had some funds, proceeds of the sale of the railway, and to a further contingent in the shape of the discount of ten million Treasury Bills, the National Bank managed to hold out till the grant of a fresh issue of 50,000,000 notes from the Treasury, half of which was voted for the National Bank to pay back the advances of the Provincial Bank.

Then took place the failure of Baring and several other large firms connected with this market; the Government and the State banks got into difficulties. Immediately the foreign credits of the Government and of the two State banks were cut short, and all outstanding balances had to be met. The National Bank had to pay its own balances and those of the National Government, whilst the Provincial Bank had to meet likewise its engagements and those of the Provincial Government.

The National Bank had to lay hands on the 25 millons deposited in its vaults for account of the National Mortgage Bank; the Provincial Bank had to divest itself of all that remained of the proceeds of the sale of the railway, and at the same time had to face a run on its deposits.

In the beginning of this year I received private information that the reserves of the Provincial Bank were daily decreasing and that at any moment the Bank might be in difficulties. I then gave orders that the National Bank should lend every possible assistance and avail of whatever balance remained of the fifty million issue of Treasury notes for the purpose. Meantime, I endeavored to secure a loan at short dates in Europe, but the state of the markets here and in Europe rendered the operation impossible.

It was then that pressing insinuations were made to induce me to appeal to a fresh issue of banknotes, and, although such means were distasteful, as they had been twice tried with negative and ruinous results, the Government did not care to act in such an emergency without consulting the opinions of others. It was, therefore, resolved to convoke to a secret meeting the members of the Caja de Conversion, through whose medium all issues of paper must be effected. They were informed of the state of the banks and of the measures suggested to relieve them: they unanimously declared that they would resign their posts rather than sanction any fresh issue of paper money.

Meantime a climax was imminent: on the 5th of March both State banks had exhausted their reserves, and on that date I issued the decree suspending business in order to give the Banks breathing time and prepare elements to succour them.

I then invited, to take part in the councils of the government, a body of citizens, not only to listen to their opinions in the emergency, but to enlighten them on the reality of the situation, that they might effect a movement in public opinion that might assist the acts of the governments.

At that meeting two schemes were presented: one on the part of the Government proposing the issue of metallic notes to be thrown on the market in exchange for banknotes at the rate of one metallic note to two paper notes; another on the part of the committee of merchants proposing the issue of a home loan for 100 million paper dollars. The majority supported the latter alternative as the more direct and efficient remedy: they opposed the issue of metallic notes on the ground that they would not give the immediate results desired, an objection confirmed by subsequent events.

The Government then decided to accept the home loan, and the decree of 8th March was issued in consequence. The people supported the idea, and both here and in the provinces subscribed large amounts to the loan: the private banks lent powerful help. The zeal of the Commercial Committee which took charge of the operation entitles the members to the gratitude of the Government.

The Caja de Conversion informed the Government that the subscription lists to the loan amounted to a nominal total of 43 millions. The Government considered this amount sufficient to enable the banks to keep their doors open until you met, and gave orders that the proceeds of the loan be handed to the banks.

The National Bank received from the Caja de Conversion $10,938,000 m/n and the Provincial Bank $15,350,000.

At the end of March the Caja de Conversion informed the Government that in view of the drain on both banks the proceeds of the loan would not suffice to meet the demands of depositors, and on the 6th April sent a reserved note stating that the funds of the loan were exhausted, the drain on the banks increasing, and that it would be impossible to hold out till the 1st of May. This notice was confirmed by the daily movement at both banks, and it was no longer doubtful that they would be obliged to close their doors in the face of the depositors claiming their money.

In one year these two State Banks had exhausted:—$20,700,000 m/n. of clandestine issues, $50,000,000 of Treasury notes, $26,300,000 of the home loan, say $97,000,000 m/n paper, besides $13,000,000 m/n gold of the sale of the Western Railway: not to mention ordinary banking returns during a period in which discounts were reduced as much as possible.

Then came the decree of 7th April suspending the payment of deposits. This decree has been qualified as violent and outrageous, yet it merely implied a foregone conclusion and delayed the hand of the law, which would have provoked a disastrous liquidation. Thanks to this decree, you are now able to study a plan of reorganization on the basis of living and active organisms; this would not have been the case had the Government refused to accept any responsibility in the matter and had left the banks to the mercy of the ordinary law-courts.

Those who criticised the decree with much severity, in the name of tardy patriotism and invoking a love for these banking institutions that appears suspicious at this late stage of the crisis; those who charged the Government with being the cause of the fall of both banks, merely rehearse the fable of the Wolf and the Lamb, for the measures of the Government merely bowed to stern facts and confirmed results rendered inevitable by previous causes. Had this patriotism and love been practically exerted in the past, maybe the catastrophe might have been averted or attenuated.

In the history of all these antecedents, I am bound to enter into details to show the stern reality of the situation: whilst signing these decrees, I assumed before the country and before Congress serious responsibilities. I exceeded the Constitutional power with which I am invested, and it is my duty to show that I was forced by circumstances to act in this position to safeguard the interests of the public, and I trust that you will approve my acts.

THE CHILIAN REVOLUTION.

Telegrams from the West Coast announce that President Balmaceda has been invested with extraordinary powers, in other words the Chilian Congress has declared him Dictator. Meantime, advices from the North announce that the revolutionists have evacuated the province of Atacama and the town of Caldera: this implies that the revolutionary land forces are advancing on Balmaceda's head-quarters at Santiago and Valparaiso. Owing to the mountainous features of the country it is not probable that any decisive engagement will be fought in the vicinity of the capital before the middle of June.

The revolutionary fleet, contrary to expectations, has not advanced on Valparaiso, and is probably engaged in the escort of transports from Peru and Central America with ammunition and war material of all kinds. The fast cruiser Esmeralda, it is said, sighted the transport Itata, which escaped from Californian ports, at Acapulco, and both are now steaming for Iquique, headquarters of the revolutionary government. The Itata conveys rifles and ammunition for the revolutionists, and will no doubt supply equipment for fresh contingents in Atacama and further South.

The Chilian division under order of Colonel Camus which passed through Argentine territory from Jujuy and Salta to Mendoza, is now crossing the Andes, in spite of the advanced stage of the season, and in a few days will be in Santiago. The crossing of the Andes is a very dangerous task at this time of the year; as a rule the middle of April is the limit of the favourable season; snow begins to fall towards the end of April and intercepts passage on the high passes. We may be prepared to hear that this Chilian Hannibal has lost many hundreds out of his division of two thousand men: his retreat from Antofagasta, however, has been a masterly stroke and will rank as a memorable retreat in the records of war. According to telegrams to the Chilian Minister here, the desertions from the Camus division during their passage through Argentine territory did not reach the number of a company of the line. This speaks well for the spirit and discipline of the troops.

THE BOYS' ORPHANAGE.

The preliminary meeting for this purpose took place at the Irish Convent on the 17th ult., a large number of ladies being present, as well as Rev. Samuel O'Reilly, Rev. Father Gray and Dr. O'Farrell, L. L. D. The proceedings were opened by Dr. O'Farrell who stated that the want of a Boys' Orphanage had been long felt and the ladies present proposed to create such an establishment. The present occasion was particularly favorable because the Argentine Government was ready to co-operate, the Commissioner of Immigration, Dr. Alsina, having stated that a sum of $4,000 currency would be placed at the disposal of the Ladies' Committee as soon as the Orphanage should be installed. Dr. Alsina had further promised to provide the school furniture.

The meeting then proceeded to elect a committee, the voting resulting as follows:—

The second meeting was held likewise at the Irish Convent, on the 12th inst., when the Committee reported as follows. A small house has been taken in premises adjoining the college of the Vincentian Fathers in Calle Cochabamba, for the orphan boys, who are to be educated by the Christian Brothers, under the general supervision of the Vincentian Fathers, of whom Rev. Father Gray is one. The Fathers have arranged for a fixed sum monthly to provide the maintenance of the boys. The British Amateur Dramatic Association has kindly promised a portion of the profits of a performance. Dr. Murphy has volunteered medical service gratis.

CONGRESS.

THE INTERPELLATION.

At three o'clock sharp the Deputies met yesterday and the galleries were crowded, the presence of numerous Chilian residents being specially remarked. Such was the squeeze at half-past three that the police had to close the doors; and such was the excitement of the Chilian gentlemen in the gallery that on several occasions the speaker of the House ordered the reading of the regulations and threatened to clear the gallery. Much of the interest of the sitting was lost owing to the absence of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr. Dn Eduardo Costa, who, unable to attend from one cause or other, answered Deputy Molina's interpellation in writing.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs, in his written answer to the Chamber of Deputies, excused his absence from the House on the plea of precedents established in Congress: he drew attention also to the fact that the greatest reserve was necessary, especially in international questions which were still under negotiation. With regard to the passage of the division of Col. Camus he begged to call attention that the men of that division were at liberty to dissolve and go whither they wished. There had been some irregularities which were now being ventilated between the Chilian and Argentine Cabinets. Another negotiation was on the "tapis" owing to the supposed encroachment of Chilian troops on Argentine territory in the Province of San Juan. Orders had been given to the local authorities of San Juan to disarm those troops and release the prisoners they might hold; to this effect a picquet of 20 men of the 4th of the Line had been ordered to start from Mendoza for San Juan. The violation of Argentine territory by Colonel Stephens was denied by the Chilian Government, but it had promised to sift the matter and give all the necessary explanations and satisfaction.

The above was the sum and substance of the answer of President Pellegrini and his Foreign Secretary to the interpellation of the House.

Deputy Molina, however, was not satisfied with the answer of the Executive, and in an exhaustive and very able speech turned into ridicule the absurd notions the Government entertained with regard to the duties of neutrality. Bringing the question nearer home, he showed how the Argentine army was distributed over frontiers that needed no defence and in garrisons that answered no purpose. Two to three thousand men were employed in idleness on the frontier of the Rio Negro; three thousand men were garrisoned in this city to safeguard the President, the Government and Congress; battalions were employed in guarding Provincial Governors; others were told off to drive people away from electoral polls; meantime, not a soldier was ordered to the Andine froutier to prevent the violation of Argentine territory. Rounds of applause shook the old walls of Congress as the eloquent orator dubbed the soldiers at Mendoza as paid "police-men" to gain elections. The talented Deputy then asked the House to pass a minute to the Executive "inviting it to observe" the strictest neutrality in the struggle raging between the Executive and Congress of Chile; demanding that troops be told off to guard the Andine passes to repel any advance into and chastise any violation of Argentine territory."

Deputy Magnasco seconded Deputy Molina, supporting all his arguments with the wisdom of a professor of international law. Deputy Pellegrini attacked the arguments of both Deputies and defended the conduct of the Executive; but failed to make any impression on the House, and the Minute to the Executive was carried by a fair majority.

It remains to be seen if the Senate will take the same view of the policy of the Government as the Deputies. The vote of the Deputies is anything but a compliment to the Executive, and, if followed up by the Senate, will lead to a recognition of the Chilian rebels in the lofty status of belligerents.

MONTEVIDEO.

With regard to Mr. Casey's mysterious schemes for the resuscitation of the National Bank, the two best informed papers, the Siglo and Razon, assert positively that the Board of Directors has definitely and unanimously rejected them, not considering them practicable or convenient for the interests of the Bank. The directors Sr. Lessa and Castilla, who were asked to report upon the schemes, did so unfavourably. With the exception of the above determination, which was immediately communicated to the President, the result of the Board meeting is held in strict reserve, especially as to the reasons for rejection. We understand, but cannot state authoritatively, that the rejections extends also to Mr. Casey's schemes for the coinage of gold, silver and nickel money.

Although the details of the above schemes, as well as the names of the original proponents, have never transpired, and have been made the matter of much mystification, they were not looked upon with any serious confidence by the market, and their rejection was generally expected, and has been received with complacency if not favour.

We hear the minuet, which was so great a success at the recent ball at the house of Mr. William Lafone Quevedo, will be repeated by the same ladies and gentlemen at the dance to be given at the house of Mrs. Shaw. The ladies who took part were the Misses Maria Hordeñana, Ema Castro, Sarah Lafone, Maria Luisa Gomez, Maria Piñeyro, Elvira Piñeyro, Julia Villegas, Elena Lafone, Mercedes Vidal, Rosa Arocena, Elena Lafone Gomez and Maria Capurro.

The "vecinos" of Tacuarembó appear to have been much disappointed that the inauguration of the railway from Piedra Sola to their town, which took place on the 1st inst., was effected without the usual festivities. A large crowd of ladies and gentlemen of the neighbourhood, all arrayed in their Sunday's best, awaited in the station the arrival of the first train, which, however, put in an appearance in the quietest manner possible, just as though it had been accustomed to the new station for the last ten years.

The death of Dr. Emilio Reus, which took place last Thursday morning, though not altogether unexpected, caused a profound impression in this city, with the fortunes of which he was for two most eventful years so closely connected. His position as the founder of institutions of credit whose rises and falls were for some years the barometer of the credit of Uruguay, is not without suggestiveness at this moment. Though his power to influence them either for good or ill had long since ceased, even while their founder lay struggling between life and death the future of at least one of these institutions seemed also trembling in the balance.

That Dr. Reus committed grave errors of judgment in many of his boldest undertakings, the consequences of which have proved most fatal to himself, his friends and this country, there can be little doubt, and many will lay upon his shoulders all the evils which sprang from the natural relapse in the value of property and securities which succeeded the general inflation his advent initiated; but at the same time all must acknowledge he was a man of varied knowledge and experience, immense energy, and enterprising initiative who in the course of an exceedingly short meteoric career carved his name deeply in the memory of an entire nation, and created an epoch here; a man whose personal qualities raised him up many warm friends and hosts of staunch admirers. He will perhaps now be most kindly remembered by the thousands of poor workmen his bold undertakings found occupation for at a time when, had he—a man of genius, but unversed in the requirements of practical business—been associated with some guiding business mind, his schemes would doubtless have achieved most brilliant results. Dr. Reus was only 32 years of age. His funeral, on Friday morning last, was attended by a large number of the most influential people in the city. R. I. P.

We sincerely regret to learn that Mr. E. D. Greenwood, of the London and River Plate Bank, is suffering from a severe attack of small-pox in its worst form.

A decree has been issued from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs appointing Sr. Juan Amann as Oriental Consul in Bilbao in place of Sr. Gabriel Ibarra, recently deceased.

We understand that the Minstrels of the U. S. S. Tallapoosa and Essex will give an entertainment in aid of the Sailor's Home in a few days, but we have not yet received the programme or the official announcement, so cannot give particulars.

Mrs Musgrave's "at home" on Thursday night was attended by a large circle of friends eager to participate for the last time in the kindly hospitality of so charming a hostess, enjoy once more a renewal of the pleasant evenings for which Captain and Mrs. Musgrave's quinta has become famous, and bid the latter and her little son "bon voyage." The evening was made merry with music and dancing.

Mrs. Musgrave and child leave in the "Britannia" for England on Tuesday. A very large circle of friends, English, Native, French, German and others, will sincerely regret the departure of Mrs. Musgrave, whose open-hearted hospitality combined with that of the popular commander of the "Cleopatra" has rendered social life in Montevideo during their stay here most agreeable. We unite with and echo the wishes of her numerous friends in trusting Mrs Musgrave may enjoy a pleasant and safe voyage home.

A meeting of subscribers to the "Cinderella" dances, to elect a working Committee, will be held at the Lafone Memorial Hall, next Friday evening. We understand that a full subscription list has been secured for the first dance, and that it will be left to the new Committee to organise future dances, on such bases as may prove expedient.

SACKCLOTH AND ASHES.

Buenos Ayres,
May 12th, 1891

Mr. Editor,

Although fully appreciating the patriotic efforts that are being made to celebrate the 25th of May with the usual scenic effects, I cannot help thinking that such jubilalious in face of the prevailing misery will represent nothing more than a diabolical satire on the condition in which the Argentine population now finds itself.

Would it not be more compatible with the present state of affairs to drape with mourning the effigies of the renowned apostles of freedom and independence erected in our public places, who have so gloriously shone in former years as liberators of their country; and, turning our churches into places of supplication, beseech the Almighty to guide our rulers and councillors with that wisdom that will rescue our country from the throes of universal ruin; in fact, to convert what should be a day of exaltation and pride into one of humiliation and fasting.

Should our clergy embrace this view of the situation, I do not doubt that my idea would find the most powerful support.

A lay brother.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Local Board of the Bahia Blanca North Western have submitted drawings and specifications of the rolling stock intended to be used on their line, for the approval of the Government.

The Railway Inspection office has reported in favour of the request of the Fives Lille Company to modify the route of the San Cristobal-Tucuman line, reducing the total length from 679.05 kils. as originally proposed to 601.55 kils.

The Public Works' Department has submitted for the approval of the Government the draft contract with Messrs. Brian and Co. for the construction and working of the railroad between Zarate and the Boca, granted by Law No. 2724 and dated 4th Oct. 1890: there is no guarantee on this line.

The Government Railway Department in Brazil is kept very busy: on the 25th ult. no fewer than 70 applications for new lines were refused by the Minister of Agriculture.

Sr Pirovano has informed the Pacific Railway that he will ask the Minister of the Interior to impose a minimum fine of $500 on the Company, if, within the period fixed by the decree of the 18th February last, the works at Station Bella Vista be not completed in accordance with the requirements of the said decree.

The Local Board of the Pacific Railway has presented to the Finance Minister an account for £14983 18s. 11d., being the amount of the guarantee for the half year ending the 30th prox.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was as exciting on 'Change as it well could be; the doings in Congress were also interesting; the weather was as fine as possible; the shops were pretty full, and there was rather a lively feeling all round. The tremendous rise in the gold premium gave an electric shock to all circles, and the dreaded figure of 400 was all but reached.

There was no particularly fresh news about the Chilian revolution yesterday. The fuss about the violation of Argentine territory by Chilian troops seems to be serious in Congress.

A thrilling rumour ran through fashionable English-speaking circles yesterday, and we are authorized to confirm it. The ladies who have the proposed Boys' Orphanage in hands have arranged to give a grand Fancy Ball in aid of the charitable work. The great event will come off some time next month; and it has wisely been decided that those who prefer ordinary evening dress shall be quite at liberty to wear it; while it is hoped that there will be no lack of fancy costumes. It will be the social event of this season

The good Zoos have now fallen foul of the Platense Co. for not affording sufficient accommodation to the fat turkeys, chickens, geese (with wings) etc. that travel by their boats. Perhaps the birds like it, as English foxes like being hunted to death.

Messrs. Trebino and Co. have asked Government to lend them a "cooter" for their explorations down South, for which they hold rather an extensive and valuable concession. Lend them the "cooter" by all means.

The head of the Land and Colonies Office wants the Finance Minister to tell him if he can accept payment for land in drafts on the National Bank. Well rather not, if it were our case.

Dr. Joe Borsani has applied to Government for a patent for some wonderful invention of his that will make every man his own doctor, and render the services of Sawbones, Galens and the whole medical tribe unnecessary. Bully for Borsani.

Ferrari's Italian opera company is expected to land here next Saturday. We have already published the names of the singers, amongst whom there are some old favourites. It is rather a daring speculation to bring a first class opera company to such a crisis-stricken city.

A rumour of an off-the-line on the Rosario Railway near Zarate was afloat yesterday morning; but we believe it referred to an accident already reported, in which a carriage was overturned at a crossing by a train, and one of the occupants, a lady, was killed.

The Centro Politico Estrangero seems to be going ahead as fast as first class lightning. It now counts no fewer than 180 branches and 85,000 members. The Society intends to hold a grand Conference in Rosario in the middle of next month, and delegates from all parts of the Republic will attend it.

The free-fighting and triangular duelling about the City Improvement Works becomes more amusing every day. The Board of Works and the directing engineers, Messrs. Bateman and Co., are "aux prises" again, about some inspection ordered by the former. The National Government, Dr. Plaza, Lord Rothschild, the Board of Works, the Engineers' Department, Bateman and Co., Hale and Co., the contractors and everybody concerned in the unfortunate business ought to be as "clean sick" of it as the Prince of Wales is of the baccarat scandal—and the victimised public sickest of all.

In New York recently female collectors were "set upon" "morose" debtors; but the scheme was a failure. In the first week three "collectresses" married debtors, and all the rest that are at all well favoured are engaged to marry other debtors. As the journal from which we take the notice says: "the lady collectors did not collect a red cent."

A terrible affair is reported from Trenqualauquen. Mr. Hugh L. Boucher, assistant manager of the Estancia Los Trevolares, was found lying dead near the estancia, having been, no doubt, cruelly murdered by someone unknown. Mr. Boucher was returning from town to the estancia.

Subscribers to the Sailors' Home are reminded of the General Meeting which takes place this afternoon in the schoolroom of St. John's Anglican Church at 4 p.m.

The Scotch Church Young Men's Society will have a debate to-night on the weighty question of Sunday athletics. All young men are invited.

Our sporting friends should note that the entries for the Hurlingham meeting on the 28th inst. close at 2 p. m. to-day.

Our Boca subscribers now go about after nightfall with their hearts in their mouths and loaded revolvers in all their pockets. Burglars, footpads and bad characters of all kinds so abound that some specially energetic steps on the part of the Chief of Police, to protect life and property, are most urgently called for. The oldest inhabitant of the Boca cannot recall to memory such a state of things in that populous quarter of the city.

We find the following in a recent London exchange:— "Sydney Smith once spoke of the terrors of being preached to death by tame curates. A similar catastrophe threatens the inhabitants of Washington this week, for, in celebration of the second century of the American patent system, twenty addresses are to be delivered by inventors and engineers on the different phases of invention. This is almost too much for human endurance, and throws the tortures of the Inquisition into the shade."

It is decidedly amusing to see Johnny Portugee take a leaf out of Argentina's book when his monetary affairs are out of order. He has, however, improved on his model and made his first appearance in the suspension comedy last a round two months. It is certainly flattering to this country to see its financial methods adopted in the old world, and Portugal will not be the last to try them.

Dr. Berdier, the Argentine Sanitary Plenipo. in Rio, has wired the agreeable intelligence that yellow fever is declining there. Meanwhile, quite as bad a disease, typhus fever, is growing here; due, no doubt, to the terrible privations the crisis has brought on the people.

At the meeting of the Corporation on Tuesday everything was as flat as pancakes and small beer, the only enlivening ingredient being the report of a Special Committee on the "goings on" of the ex-Administrator of the Corrales, who is alleged to have lived in a chronic fog as to the difference between "meum et tuum" whenever Municipal hay, horses, carts, carriages, etc., were in question. The Committee advise that the law be set in motion.

Government has refused to sanction the statutes of the proposed «Circulo Maritimo Estrangero», a naval Club for captains of war and mercantile vessels of all nationalities. The Attorney General reported against this, apparently, much required Club, but what his reasons are we are unable to say.

The Mexican Financier refers as follows to a distinguished diplomatist who has many friends in this country:—

"In the appointment of Mr. George Jenner as Minister to Peru the British Government has paid a well-merited tribute to a diplomat of almost world-wide experience, of great acquirements in every department of learning useful in the diplomatic career, and, withal, a most charming gentleman. Mr. Jenner was, but a few years ago, Secretary of the British Legation at this capital, and was transferred hence to Buenos Ayres where he won reputation for his careful studies of the financial situation, embodied in a series of admirable reports to his Government. All that Mr. Jenner, who was Charge d'Affaires in the Argentine capital, predicted has come to pass, verifying his accuracy as a student of large economic questions."

In learned Cordoba the Professors in the University and State schools have not been paid since February, and there is little prospect of their fingering any cash for months to come.

The arrangements for the discharging at La Plata of large vessels that cannot enter the Madero Port will soon be completed, and there can be little doubt that all ocean vessels will elect to go there, thus contributing to the inevitable the force that will be the end of the costly port blunder.

Two female shop-lifters were neatly caught in the well-known Progreso "tienda" on Tuesday. They bought a morning gown, and one of them slipped a valuable piece of silk under her cloak as they were going out. The assistant who saw the deed said nothing till the fair ones were in the street, when he made a sign to the man in blue at the corner. The women protested, cried, and would have tried a faint but that the street was rather dirty. A crowd, of course, assembled, and there was a good deal of laughing as the policeman towed the pair, who looked quite respectable women, to the Comisaria.

The New York World refers as follows to a young Greek there who has quite eclipsed Benzon in the way of mad extravagance:—

"Alcide Valdora, the young Greek who spent $2,000,000 in three years and is now at Castle Garden looking for a job, has been offered a position as waiter in a downtown restaurant and may accept. If he thinks to retrieve his fortune in tips he should join a palace car as porter."

An esteemed colleague who was present at the Salvation Army meeting on Tuesday says that some of the lady soldiers are pretty, but that their dress is simply awful. A good many people will agree in this. Why not give the lasses a more becoming dress?

Our financial Cato can hardly be well satisfied at the result of his new Excise tax. It is announced that the breweries at Bahia Blanca do not pay enough tax in the month to meet even the travelling expenses of the Inland Revenue Inspector, much less his thumping salary. Excessive taxation always gives this result.

We are sorry to see our valuable contemporary the Montevideo Times in rather low spirits. Referring to the appearance of a new English paper in Rio Janeiro, it says:—"We should think that the English colony in Rio is of sufficient importance to support a daily, though, judging by our own experience here, English residents in South America do not, as a rule, show any overwhelming anxiety to support a representative organ in their own language."

A gentleman named Alpino, living in Calle Ayacucho, who held the theory (he won't hold it in future) that his wardrobe was a safer place in which to keep cash than a good private bank, had this opinion rather rudely shaken the other night when burglars got into his house and made away with the highly respectable sum of $13,000. He flew to the police, but he and the 13 thou. have probably parted, never more to meet.

One of our London contemporaries calls Argentine bank notes "skinplasters," but does not explain what effect their application has on the cutis: we should say, however, that it is a highly irritating one, especially with yesterday's price for gold.

The Rio News says:—"The Cologne Gazette seems to feel considerably hurt over the reciprocity treaty between Brazil and the United States, and the Hamburg board of trade wants the German government to make a serious representation

Cocinas Economicas Americanas

Hardly had the second hour opened when gold shot up to 393½%, which is the highest rate yet touched in the very chequered career of the crisis, passing even the panic rate that signalized the advent of the financial holidays. The excitement in the hall rose to fever pitch. The 400 bound seemed so inevitable that everybody quaked at the very thought, and assuredly if 400 had been quoted it might have caused a repetition of the famous Bolsa battle that characterized the posting of 350 some months ago. Happily the ounce touched the zenith of the rise at 64, and, dropping from that to 62.40, it closed with sellers at 62.60, which gives an equivalent of 3841%. In stocks very little was done, and everything, with exception of National Bank shares, closed down, the latter being done at 33, but only for a small lot. Cedulas were flat, and the Patriotic Loan Bonds, after sinking to 57.50, closed weak at 59.

Sovereigns—
May 14 .... £4,500 at 20-19.60-80
South American Ounces—
May 14 .... 5,257 at 63.30-64-62.40-62.60
Empresitio Nacional Interno—
May 14 .... 14,000 at 57.50-59
National Bank Shares—
May 14 .... 200 at 34
Catalinas Moles—
May 14 .... 4,600 at 7.80-60-90
Banco Constructor Obligations—
May 14 .... 1,000 at 1.20
Provincial Hypothecary Cedulas—
May 14 ..K 20,000 at 40.50
May 14 ..G 5,550 at 37.40
May 14 ..L 8,000 at 46.50-20
May 14 ..M 10,000 at 38.20
May 14 ..N 19,600 at 38.20-40-20
May 14 ..O 38,000 at 38.20-30

Some cheques were reported negotiated to-day at 15% and apagarés at 9 to 10 %. Discounts, however, continue very difficult.

As the packet left to-day, little or nothing was done in exchange, and very little was offering. Some sterling was passed at 471-4d. Francs were offered at 4.97, but we did not hear of any business done.

Circulars were handed round to-day by the leading firm of Portais, Calvet and Co one of the largest houses in the South American wine trade, announcing the withdrawal of Mr. Portais from the business, which will in future be carried on by Messrs. J. A. Calvet and Alberto Calvet under the style and title of Calvet and Company. Both partners are most favorably known in the market and we have no hesitation in auguring for the new firm the uninterrupted prosperity in the future that the old firm enjoyed in the past.

The Custom House receipts to-day were as follows :—

	m/n
Imports	$295,825.35
Exports	43,795.91
	$339,621.26

Total to date, $16,874,365.86 paper.

The Finance Minister has fixed 375 % as the standard for the payment of the Customs' duties in gold.

The Government has decided that for the future the gold rate for payment of duties in the Custom House shall be fixed daily at ten per cent below the market rate.

Messrs. Bateman & Co. have objected (to the Engineers Department) to the appointment of Engineer Krauss, for the purpose of inspecting some domiciliary work done by "La Argentina" Co. They have also appealed to the Government; but the Engineers Department insists on Messrs. Bateman obeying its orders. This squabble is merely another phase of tha never-ending wrangling about these unlucky works.

Rosario advices announce that a large number of forged Treasury Bills have been discovered and in the following rather original manner. The police received information that a certain Mr. Dominguez, partner of Mr. Calp, had put a number of forged bonds in circulation and he was accordingly arrested, but released on bail owing to none of the forged bonds being found either on his person or in the house. As soon as he was released, however, he hastened to assure his bailees that the accusation was true and that the forged bonds were in a secret drawer in the safe overlooked by the police. The services of the latter were requisitioned and Mr. Dominguez returned to his quarters in the prison. His partner, Mr. Calp, has applied to the Courts to have the partnership dissolved.

According to official statistics, the importation and exportation of the first quarter of this year as compared with same period of last year were as follows ;—

Imports :

	1890	1891
Subject to duty	$30,548,302	$11,623,824
Free of duty ..	9,923.733	7,560,564
Specie.....	2,487,903	573,893
	$42,959,938	$19,758,291

Exports :

	1890	1891
Subject to duty		$26,041,504
Free of duty..	$38,234,628	12,575,088
Specie.....	2,286,464	585,918
	$40,521,092	$39,202,510

The falling off in imports is astounding, especially when it is considered that the above figures are based upon the respective tariffs of the two years. The duties liquidated sum up to $10,311,017.

«Sr. Lauro V. Rodriguez has bought at auction 3,000 squares of camp in San Jose, B.O., at $15 the square.»

WOLSELEY SHEEP SHEARING MACHINE COMPANY LIMITED.

El Recreo, Azul, Marzo 3 de 1891.

Srs. AGAR, CROSS & CO., Calle Defensa 136.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no quer a darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastimduras sanan facilmente, y se hacen cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.
